FFKDA PRESIDENT’S WELCOMING

It is both on honour and pleasure to greet you on the behalf of the French Karate Federation within the framework Kyokushin Karate European Open which will be held on 28th November, 2009 in PARIS, the capital of France.

This is the first Kyokushin Open that we are going to welcome. Thus, we will reserve for all participants warmest welcome throughout this Open.

As you can notice during your coming, Paris owns a very rich cultural heritage with many famous monuments and numerous sports infrastructures convenient to the organization of great sports events.

As host country, we will do our best to make this Tournament memorable for all of you.

I wish good luck to all competitors which will participate at this Open. I hope that you will be satisfied with your stay in Paris.

Respectfully,

Francis DIDIER
The President of French Karate Federation
EKKO PRESIDENT’S WELCOMING

Osu,

Welcome everyone to the " European Open Weight Categories Kyokushin Karate Tournament " for Men, Women, and Juniors, Kumite and Kata.

It is a great pleasure to present for the first time to all of you this event in Paris. France, a country with so long experience in Martial Arts specially in Karate, is organizing in co-operation with the French Karate Federation and European Kyokushin Karate Organisation this tournament. We hope that all spectators today will enjoy this unique competition of Kyokushin karate.

Many thanks to the President of the French Karate Federation, Mr. Francis Didier, for helping to make this competition possible, to our IKO President Kancho Matsui for attending and preside today, as well to IKO Adviser S.Loek Hollander and General Secretary S.K.Gorai.

I would like to extend my thanks to the EKKO Board and French Kyokushin Organisation for all the hard work done to make this event possible today.

I wish good luck to all the participants and officials, thank you to all of you.

Osu,

Antonio Pinero
President of European Kyokushin Karate Organisation
GENERAL INFORMATION

Paris, city of art and culture

Sightseeing in Paris is like plunging into ancient history: remains of the old Roman Lutetia, grand medieval abbeys, gothic masterpieces, classical architecture, collections from Napoleonic times, perspectives defined by Haussmann... a remarkable density of artistic and cultural treasures to choose from at each visit! 180 museums and monuments for your enjoyment: discover internationally-renowned collections of paintings, sculptures and decorative arts, go in search of iconic emblems, symbols of the influence of an era, take inspiration from a wealth of contemporary heritage – all this makes Paris a capital of the arts, both past and present.
